Migrant Women
Empowerment and Integration

Public invitation for expression of interest

Notice of invitation for participants for the activities of the “Migrant Women Empowerment and Integration” project.

Are you a woman living in Strasbourg? Join us!

The WEMIN (Migrant Women Empowerment and Integration) project is funded by the Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund (AMIF) of the European Union. WEMIN aims at implementing and promoting a pioneering integration model for migrant and refugee women of all ages living in EU countries. More information on the project website: www.wemin-project.eu

We are inviting migrant and refugee women living in Athens, Greece and local women from Athens to be involved. Why? For participating in the following activities, that will take place in the city from October 2018 to November 2019:

- Linguistic and cultural training for migrant and refugee women – From October 2018 to September 2019
- Empowerment training for migrant and refugee women – From January to October 2019
- Small group mentoring sessions for migrant and refugee women - From January to October 2019
- Crafts and culture workshops for migrant and refugee women, and women from the local community – From April to November 2019

These courses and activities will help the participants to better integrate, improve language skills and have better access to a job or social activity. These activities will be organized by Hellenic Open University – DAISSy Research Group and Olympic Training & Consulting Ltd. Participation in all the activities being run through WEMIN is free for all participants, and expression of interest is a prerequisite.

Are you a migrant or refugee woman, or a woman from the local community of Athens, and are you interested? Get in touch with us for more information, and for expressing interest in the project activities!
